If necessary, we will then take a short break and resume trial in January 2018.

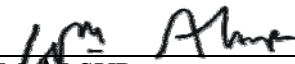

Any request by Waymo to amend its list of asserted trade secrets for trial, expert reports, or lineup of trial exhibits and witnesses must be made via a formal motion to be filed by OCTOBER 23 AT NOON, with any response due by OCTOBER 25 AT NOON and a hearing on OCTOBER 26 AT 8:00 A.M. Also by OCTOBER 23 AT NOON, Waymo may file a supplemental offer of proof as to defendant Otto Trucking LLC, with any supplemental response due by OCTOBER 25 AT NOON. Going forward, the parties shall complete currently-pending discovery, but no new discovery may be taken except by stipulation or with Magistrate Judge Jacqueline Corley's advance permission. Moreover, except for discovery disputes, no new motion (or supplement to any pending motion) may be filed in this action without the Court's advance permission. A party seeking such permission must submit a précis summarizing the key arguments from and relief sought by the proposed motion, as well as its timing needs. The opposing side will then have 48 HOURS to respond. The précis and response are each limited to FIVE PAGES in length (twelve-point font, double-spaced, with no footnotes or attachments). After considering the précis and any response thereto, the Court will either grant or deny permission to file the proposed motion. If permission is granted, a briefing schedule and hearing date will be set.

IT IS SO ORDERED.
